

2021-22 Preview

The Illinois State Redbirds return two of its three double-digit scorers from a season ago and have eight players returning who started at least one game last season, in addition to bringing in a handful of key newcomers to make 2021-22 an exciting season in Normal.

Leading the returners for Illinois State is Antonio Reeves and Josiah Strong. Last season Reeves averaged 12.4 points per game and added 82 rebounds and 36 assists while starting 24 of 25 games during the year. Strong averaged 11.5 points per game, while making 37 percent of his long-range shots and dished out 59 assists, second-most among returners.

Also back are Emon Washington (5.3 points per game), Harouna Sissoko (4.2 points per game), Abdou Ndiaye (MVC-returner-leading 1.4 blocked shots per game), Howard Fleming Jr. (team-leading 66 assists last season), Alston Andrews (2.4 points per game), and Alex Kotov (1.5 points per game) – all of whom started at least one game last season. Also back is UMass transfer Sy Chatman, who opted out of last season after five games, and averaged 11.7 minutes in those contests.

New to the squad is a group of four incoming transfers: Mark Freeman, Kendall Lewis, Liam McChesney, and Ryan Schmitt. Freeman most recently was named to the All-Ohio Valley Conference Second Team after averaging 17.1 points and 4.6 assists per game at Tennessee State. Lewis averaged 9.9 points and 4.1 rebounds per game in nine games last season with Appalachian State before opting out of the season. McChesney was one of the top prospects coming out of Canada during his senior season and saw his redshirt freshman campaign at Utah State cut short because of injury last season. Last season Schmitt helped Des Moines Area Community College to a NJCAA Division II National Title, averaging 11.8 points, 2.0 rebounds, and 2.7 blocked shots per game – the latter of which was fourth-highest in the country.

Dan Muller, the 2017 Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year, has proven his ability to win an MVC championship. Now in his ninth year as Illinois State's head coach, Muller has led the Redbirds to a share of the MVC regular-season title (2017), which was the program's first since he helped ISU win the Valley championship as a player in 1998, and has led the program to three MVC Tournament Championship Game appearances.

Muller was named the 19th men's basketball coach in school history May 8, 2012, and since then, he has led Illinois State to a better MVC record and higher conference record than the previous season in six of the eight seasons. In 2016-17, Muller guided the Redbirds to program bests in MVC wins (17-1, en route to the Valley title), regular-season victories (25) and overall triumphs (28).

Through his first nine seasons, Muller amassed a 156-135 record and coached the Redbirds to four victories over Top-25 programs, three postseason appearances (2017 National Invitation Tournament, 2015 NIT and 2014 College Basketball Invitational), four postseason wins, and victories against the Big Ten, the BIG EAST, the Southeastern Conference (SEC) and the American Athletic Conference. Muller is the first coach in Illinois State basketball history to beat four Top-25 teams in his first four seasons, and his four Top-25 victories are also tied for the most ever recorded by a Redbird head coach.

Muller has guided ISU student-athletes to 15 All-Missouri Valley Conference selections (four first team, eight second team and three honorable mention), six MVC All-Defensive accolades, five MVC All-Newcomer honors and one MVC All-Freshman accolade.

For Muller's first-year efforts, he was named one of 10 national finalists for the 2013 Joe B. Hall Award, which is presented annually to the top first-year coach in Division I college basketball.

Before becoming Illinois State's leader, Muller spent 12 years as an assistant coach at Vanderbilt. Under former Illinois State head coach Kevin Stallings, Muller was regarded as one of the top assistant coaches in the country. As Vanderbilt's recruiting coordinator, Muller spearheaded the program's recruiting efforts beginning in 2006, which were the highest-rated recruiting classes in the history of the program.

Beginning in 2006 and through Muller's tenure, the Vanderbilt men's basketball program signed six four-star recruits and Rivals 150 Prospects, in addition to five-star recruit John Jenkins in 2009, the nation's leading high school scorer and a PARADE and Reebok All-American.

During Muller's tenure, Vanderbilt had 18 players named to the All-Southeastern Conference First and Second teams and a player named to the All-SEC Defensive Team three consecutive years (2010, 2011 and 2012).

Since Muller joined the Vanderbilt staff in 2000, the staff and team accomplished seven 20-win seasons. Starting in 2003, Vanderbilt was recognized nationally as a Top-25 team in the Associated Press Poll for a total of 51 weeks. In 2007-08, Vanderbilt was ranked in the AP Top-25 for the most consecutive weeks in school history.

Muller's efforts, both on and off the court, helped propel the Commodores to the 2012 SEC Tournament Championship, the Commodores' first league tournament title since 1951. In addition, Vanderbilt appeared in six NCAA Tournaments, including five in the last six seasons, and posted two Sweet 16 appearances during Muller's tenure.

Along with his recruiting, scouting and on-court responsibilities, Muller directed the student-athletes' academic progress. During that time, Vanderbilt collected a 100 percent senior graduation rate and one of the highest APR's in NCAA Division I college basketball.

As a player, Muller guided Illinois State to two regular-season and Missouri Valley Conference Tournament championships and four postseason appearances, including trips to the NCAA Tournament in his final two seasons (1997 and 1998).

Muller ranks 11th in career scoring with 1,445 points, while leading the Redbirds to a 91-37 overall record, and he still owns the school record with 128-consecutive starts (every game of his career). Muller was also a two-time MVC Defensive Player of the Year and was named the MVP of the Valley Tournament as a senior. In 2009, he was inducted into the Illinois State Athletics Percy Family Hall of Fame.

Off the court, Muller was just as successful. He was a two-time GTE Academic All-American and a recipient of the NCAA's Post-Graduate Scholarship. He also was named a Bone Scholar, the highest academic honor at ISU, and he is the only men's basketball student-athlete to earn the award.

After playing for the Redbirds, the Lafayette, Indiana, native spent two years playing professionally, including a stint with the NBA's Vancouver Grizzlies.

Muller is a 1998 graduate of Illinois State and graduated cum laude with a bachelor's degree in organizational leadership. He later earned his master's in business administration from Florida in 2003. He is married to Melissa Muller and has one stepson, Sib.
